We wish to thank Paul Butalla for his efforts in selling the cutter head.

The work on the flood-gate has been postponed until after Labor Day.

A reminder that the current year Indian Lake Improvement Association assessment is due in June.

There have been many trespassers on the beaches. Everyone - kids, teens and adults - should call the sheriff. Perhaps the problem would be alleviated if more adults used the beaches at night. Men, have you taken your wives down to the beach to look at the moon lately?

THANK YOU

We want to thank Linda VanTreese for opening her home and also we want to thank her committee for a great "Spring Social". As the evening progressed approximately 30 area guests enjoyed delicious hors d'oeuvres, 10 cups of coffee, 3 tea bags, and 4 gallons of wine!!

Thanks to all who helped with the Beach Clean-up. It was a big success! The workers enjoyed 7 packages of hot dogs and 2 cases of Towne Club for their efforts.

prison Alcatraz. The food was excellent and the scenery unique. We ended our tour with a drink at the Top of the Mark. We said good-bye to old friends of Tim's and new friends of mine, with plans for them to visit us this summer. As the song goes, we did leave our hearts in San Francisco!

With this trip over and another in mind, Florida seems to be the destination. Alone with the three girls, Disneyworld and other interesting places are on the agenda with hopes of Tim joining us for a few days.

"HAWAII OR BUST"

By: Jeannette & Tim Hoover

Our trip started with a few tears between smiles. The long day of flying over the country was tiring, but we were soon refreshed with a Mia Tia and a few hours of sunshine on the beach.

We enjoyed the use of a rented car and being on our own to drive to beaches such as Sunset, with the Bondseye pipeline and Puka Shells, and Sandy Beach with the Blow Hole and mountains.

An evening on a catamaran for dinner with its open bar and three piece combo was a fun trip and a beautiful way to see Waikiki.

The scenic view atop the revolving restaurant at night is quite spectacular.

Aloha to the fabulous weather, beautiful beaches and friendly people with plans to return with the children.

From Hawaii to San Francisco in just a few short hours. We stayed in Chinatown, rode the cablecars to the wharf at Hyde Park. We were met by some old friends Tim hadn't seen in 10 years. They gave us a first class tour of the city including a boat trip of the bay and the old
