DID YOU NOTICE?

By the "Roving Eye"

1. The good time the children had at the charity carnival in the park in July?
2. The trash the participants left scattered around the park after the carnival?
3. A handful of people who tried to clean up after everyone?
4. The beautiful new picnic tables and benches at the North Beach?
5. The acts of destruction to old and new picnic tables?
6. The nice concrete block grill at the North Beach?
7. That some lake residents dismantled the grill and threw the grate in the fire pit?
8. The stumps to sit on around the fire pit?
9. That some lake residents burned the stumps?
10. That the Beach Committee picked up trash for half the summer - then gave up because some of you continued to litter, smash bottles, and etc.
11. That many teenagers enjoy congregating at the park?
12. That most leave cans, paper, etc. and never offer to pick up unless they are paid for it?
13. The excellent teaching techniques used by Mrs. Sue Wise during the two week June swim session?
14. The progress made by those who attended classes regularly?
15. The gate to the tennis court is no longer standing?
16. The new room additions, decks, terraced gardens, etc. in the lake area.
17. The children on the streets refusing to get out of the way when cars are coming? Parents, do you know what your children are doing?

DID YOU NOTICE - CONT'D

18. Maureen Wagner picking up and hauling away beach trash and Paula Christian hauling away trash from the tennis court?
19. Debbie Sweeney and Mitzie and Monte Kimball picking up trash at the park?
20. Jeannette Hoover putting chlorine in the water and sand at the North Beach to help keep the swimming area safe for lake residents?
21. John Miller and Jerry Mitchell cleaning the area around the dam?

Thanks to scouts Casey Damon and Larry Hughes for helping to pick up trash at the North and South Beaches.

Thanks to all residents who tried to keep our beaches and park clean.

Please call any comments you notice for this column to Jan Hair at 823-6057 or Linda VanTreeese at 823-6047.

NEW BUSINESS LOCATION

Joe and Kathy Zainey's "First Copy Center" recently moved to 7962 Pendleton Pike, just west of Franklin Road.

They now carry a complete line of the most frequently needed office supplies. They also have expanded their engraved card section to include wedding invitations, business cards and Christmas cards.

Their shop includes a magnetic plastic sign machine (Vac-U-Sign) which makes signs for cars, trucks, windows, and etc.

FOUND

Girl's bike at North Beach. Call Trittipos at 823-6446 to identify.

VISITORS

---

Jeff and Jan Hair recently spent a week vacationing in Melbourne, Florida. They brought Jeff's 85 year old grandmother (Mrs. Idella Hair) back to Indian Lake for an extended visit. The cool Indiana weather was appreciated after a week of over 90° hot, humid weather in Florida.

---

GET WELL WISHES

To Aggie Marsischke. Glad to see you up and around!

To Harriet Kindred. Hope you get well soon, Harriet.

To Linda Creed from her surgery.

To Thomas Reeves who is in Community Hospital recovering from surgery.

"THE WORD CENTER"

The Word Center (6408 Oaklandon Road) is a unique store well worth visiting.

They handle books on Christian and general literature in addition to greeting cards and small handcrafted gift items.

Bible study is held at the center every Thursday evening with no age, sex or denominational barriers. On Saturday evenings the youth are invited to enjoy fellowship at the "Den", the converted basement rooms of the Word Center. Friday mornings the "Children's Hour" is held for pre-school children.

Other services are available including the "Book Party" for groups interested in seeing displays of good literature and hearing reviews of promising new books.

SYMPATHY

---

To Jim and Ardis Stearns for the loss of Mrs. Stearn's father.

---

LOST

2 boat oars - standard size.
Call 823-6057 if found.
